Performance Initiatives Undertaken

The Unit continues to participate in a number of job fairs during the reporting period including: the University of Utah Student Job & Volunteer Fair (on August 28, 2013), the Hiring Our Heroes Job Fair (on October 30, 2013 & March 25, 2014), the Recruit Alumni Career Fair for University of Utah, Utah Valley University, Southern Utah University, Utah State, Brigham Young University, Westminster, Weber State, and University of Wyoming (on November 6, 2013), the Art Institute Job Fair (on February 4, 2014), the University of Utah Summer Job Fair (on February 6, 2014), co-sponsor of the Utah Broadcasters Association Job Fair at the University of Utah (on March 19, 2014), the People Helping People Single Mothers Seminar (on April 3, 2014), and Salt Lake Community College Spring Job Fair (on April 16, 2014).

The Unit's Human Resource Supervisor hosted a virtual visit with 10 students from Brigham Young University- Idaho (on March 6, 2014). Topics discussed: Organization structure of Deseret Management Corporation and how Bonneville/KSL Broadcast Group fits in, History of the KSL Broadcast Group Stations, Deseret Management Corporation Mission Statement, KSL Brand Promise, the Benefits and Advantages of Internships, Overview of KSL Broadcast Group Internship Program, and how to apply, and important things to consider when applying and interviewing at a company.

In addition, the Unit's Human Resource Supervisor represented the Unit by participating in a University Consortium of Recruiters with Deseret Management Corporation, Deseret Digital Media, Deseret News, Deseret Books, and Temple Square Hospitality (on April 30, 2014). Topics discussed: description of each station (KSL Radio, KSFI, KRSP, and KSL TV) and career opportunities in broadcasting, as well as unpaid internships. The following representatives were in attendance: Employer Outreach & Job Development (University of Utah), Associate Director Employee Relations (University of Utah), Employer Outreach & Job Development (Weber State University), Employer/External Relations Manager (Brigham Young University), Employer Outreach Specialist (Utah State University), Career Coach/Employment Outreach Coordinator (Southern Utah University), and Career & Internship Advisor (Southern Utah University).

During the reporting period, a total of 24 students participated in the Unit's internship program: Brigham Young University (9 students), University of Utah (8 students), Utah Valley University (1 student), Weber State University (2 students), Salt Lake Community College (2 students), Westminster College (1 student), and Syracuse University (1 student). The internship program allows students majoring in the communications or related fields to receive academic credit while acquiring skills needed for employment in the broadcast industry. Departments involved: KRSP-FM Marketing/Promotions, KSL News Social Media, KSL Radio Marketing/Promotions, KSL Radio News, KSL Radio The Brower, KSL TV Marketing/Promotions, KSL TV News, and KSL TV Studio 5.

KSL TV News provided a two week Educator Internship assisting with recertification for a teaching license in communications: Jordan School District (on July 8, 2013).

The Unit continues to support its scholarship program by awarding 10 scholarships to students pursuing a career in broadcasting at the following educational institutes: 1 Southern Utah University, 1 Utah State University, 1 Brigham Young University (Idaho), 2 Brigham Young University, 2 University of Utah, 1 Weber State University, 1 Dixie State University, and 1 Salt Lake Community College.

During the reporting period, 6 students participated in the Unit's job shadow program: Lake Ridge Junior High (on December 6, 2013), Freedom Academy (on October 9, 2013), North Summit High School (on January 31, 2014), Jordan High School (on March 26, 2014), Provo High School (on April 8, 2014), and University of Utah (on April 18, 2014). This program enables the students to observe and learn every aspect of a television and radio station. Personnel share their experiences and education for the variety of careers in broadcasting.

The Unit co-sponsored the 2014 Songwriter's Summit (on March 22, 2014) at the Salt Lake Community College. The Product Brand Manager and On-Air Talent talked about several aspects of song writing, production, record labels, and radio airplay.

Management and personnel continue to share their broadcasting experiences by teaching a Mass Communication Law courses (Fall 2013) at the University of Utah, by sharing technical skills and academic knowledge at the Career & Technical Education Summit Utah State Office of Education (on September 20, 2013), by answering questions from a Brigham Young University Professor and two students regarding how a newsroom functions (on October 10, 2013), by speaking on the benefits of radio communications to an Introduction to Integrated Communications class at the University of Utah (on November 4, 2013), being interviewed by three Utah State University students regarding KSL TV Sports producing (on November 15, 2013), speaking at Park Lane Elementary Career Day about being a Talent/Assistant Program Director and careers in Radio (February 2014), speaking to Jordan High School health class by our KSL TV Health & Science Specialist (on February 24, 2014), to speaking at Wasatch Peak Academy on how to tell a TV news story (on March 18, 2014), and being interviewed by a Salt Lake Community College student on all aspects of radio (on April 25, 2014).

The Unit's Music Sales Manager attended and completed the "Rising Through the Ranks" two-day training seminar dedicated to the support and advancement of women in Radio sales management (on August 21-22, 2013) sponsored by the Radio Advertising Bureau, BMI Scholarship Program and Mentoring & Inspiring Women in Radio Group. The course content includes: the role of today's radio manager, budgeting and goal setting, the art of selling your ideas, time management of executives, better management through employees style identification, women in the radio workplace, building your personal brand, and an open discussions for women in management.

The Unit provided numerous guided tours during the reporting period: to Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Youth Groups, School Groups, Colleges, Family Groups, and Community Groups. As the group tours the station, the staff answers questions and share the specific requirements, both educational and work experience, needed for the different positions within the television and radio industry. This tour allows individuals an opportunity to see the various departments and positions involved in producing television and radio broadcast.

The Unit's Meteorologist continues to partner with the Discovery Gateway Children's Museum of Utah in the Junior Weather Specialist program. This program gives students information about the weather and broadcast meteorology.

The Vice President of Human Resources attended the National Employment Law Institute 33rd Annual Employment Law Briefing (on March 23-26, 2014), topics: Developments in Equal Employment Opportunity Law, eWorkplace, ADA, Independent Contractor Misclassification, FMLA, New Retaliation and Whistleblowing Development, and Complex Wage and Hour Issues.
